OUR MISSION

Van Moer aims to be the leading reference for custom-made professional clothing across sectors such as workwear, corporate wear, healthcare, cleanroom and government.

We build sustainable partnerships based on trust, quality, customer focus and craftsmanship. By continuously investing in innovation and corporate social responsibility, we strive to create lasting value for both our customers and society.

With the same precision and reliability as the detail from which our name originates, we aim to be an indispensable part of our customers' operations.

OUR VISION

Van Moer develops and delivers high-quality, custom-made professional clothing that is functional, durable and representative.

With over 100 years of experience and a strong focus on quality, reliability and technical expertise, we support organisations in critical sectors with solutions that deliver on their promises.

Our goal is clear: to become a leading international workwear company that creates tangible value for all its stakeholders – from customers and employees to partners and society.

We combine customer-focused customisation with industrial scale, while respecting people, the environment and the foundation of every business: sustainable growth.

OUR CORE VALUES

Customer-focused approach

We listen, think along with our customers and provide solutions that closely match their specific needs.

Continuous innovation

We continuously invest in materials, technologies and design to give our customers a competitive edge.

Sustainability and corporate social responsibility

We produceren met respect voor mens en milieu en bouwen aan een eerlijke, veilige keten.

We learn and grow

We strive for growth — of our people, our products and our impact — with quality as our constant driving force.
